Instructions :

1. Score card stock as explained/shown (note: the measurements for the belly band are on white card stock, but Granny Apple Green card stock was used on the actual project)
2. Emboss Timid Tiger panels with embossing folder of your choice and adhere to front and back of book cover. Stamp on outside and or inside of book spine, as desired, before adding candy bars.
3. Adhere candy bars inside both front and back covers using mini glue dots.
4. Stamp Frank on white card stock using Memento Black ink and color with Stampin' Blends. Die cut image and also die cut two bats from center of glimmer paper at the same time.
5. Wrap Granny Apple Belly Band around book, securing ends together. Wrap ribbon around belly band and tie in bow on right side.
6. Stamp "Spooky" on top of tag with Memento Tuxedo Black ink, then layer tag on top of glimmer paper panel (covering the area where bats were cut out). Attach to front of belly band with dimensionals, then add die cut image with dimensionals.
